Biography

Michal Novinski (born in 1971, Slovak Republic) is a Slovak music composer, winner of two CZECH LIONS, recognized for his notable achievements in film and theatre. He was awarded Czech Film and Television Academy Award - CZECH LION (Český lev) for KOOKY (Kuky se vrací, 2010), directed by the Oscar-winning director Jan Svěrák, and for the critically acclaimed film IN THE SHADOW (Ve stínu, 2012) by David Ondříček, co-written with his long time collaborator Jan P. Muchow. He also won Slovak Film and Television Academy Award (Slnko v Sieti) for the Best Original Score for Jiří Chlumsky's film BROKEN PROMISE (Nedodržaný sľub, 2009).

Novinski's latest works include scores for the Czech box-office hit THE THREE BROTHERS (Tři bratři, 2014) by Jan Svěrák – a musical film for children, for a feature film ANGELS (Andělé, 2014) directed by a prolific Czech director Alice Nellis and for a feature documentary film by Martin Štrba WAVE VS. SHORE (vlna vs. břeh, 2014). He wrote a score to the latest feature film by Jan Hřebejk THE TEACHER that premiered at Karlovy Vary IFF 2016 and for which he received a FICX Award for the Best Score at 54. Gijon International Film Festival, Spain.

He is a member of the European Film Academy (EFA), Czech Film and Television Academy (CFTA) and Slovak Film and Television Academy (SFTA).
